

Employment Opportunity – Casual Position Recreation & Culture Department – Call-In Bartender

The Township of North Dundas is currently seeking candidates to fill casual positions of Call-in Bartender. We are seeking individuals to provide bartending services at licenced municipal facilities and events. Candidates must be outgoing, polite, personable, be self motivated, reliable and able to maintain professionalism and effectiveness under pressure, while preparing and responsibly serving cocktails and non-alcoholic beverages. Candidates must also be competent with cash handling (making change & maintaining a float). This position requires preparing, cleaning and stocking the bar for opening, monitoring bar inventory, ensuring that supplies are adequately stocked, and ensuring that inventory and closing procedures are performed consistently and accurately.

Qualifications: Must be 18 years of age + and willing to work evenings and weekends. A valid Smart Serve certification is required, as well as previous experience as a bartender and/or server. Valid First-Aid & CPR certification are considered an asset.

PAY: $12/hr. + gratuities
